Waiver & Release of Liability

Participation in the Home for the Holidays Parade to be held on Saturday, December 2, 2023, shall be at Participant's own risk.

I/we hereby understand, voluntarily agree & choose to accept any & all risks, including bodily/personal injury, property damage, and/or other damages which I/we may incur or cause a third party to incur as a result of my/our active and/or passive participation in the Event.

Parade Unit General Rules & Guidelines

Forward Motion Parade:

- All entries are required to maintain a continuous forward motion during the parade.
- Take parade route length [approximately one (1) mile] into consideration & have backup transportation for younger participants who may get tired & potentially slow down the parade.
- Parade officials may change pace or stop forward motion to maintain suitable space between entries.
- Each parade unit & groups are required to follow their requests to speed up or slow down.

Identification Signs: Identification banners are encouraged for entries in the parade.

Cancellation Policy: The parade always takes place rain, shine, snow, hail, or sleet. We have had it all & the parade must go on! If for some unforeseen reason your unit is not able to participate in the parade after being accepted, please contact the parade coordinator three days or more in advance.

Parade Day: Entries absent on parade day without proper notification may not receive a future invitation to the parade.

Entry Application Form: The entry application form must be completed & signed with the understanding of the general rules & guidelines. Incomplete entry forms will not be accepted. Failure to abide by these rules & guidelines may result in the unit's removal from the parade and jeopardize future invitations.

Parade Line-Up information will be emailed to you.
